"Hard times build determination and inner strength. Through them we can also come to appreciate the uselessness of anger. Instead of getting angry nurture a deep caring and respect for troublemakers because by creating such trying circumstances they provide us with invaluable opportunities to practice tolerance and patience." Dalai Lama

WELCOME TO THE CHURCH OF THE RESURRECTION

*5th Sunday after Epiphany
February 4th, 2018
8:00 a.m. (said) Eucharist
9:15 a.m. Holy Eucharist (sung)*

I am the light of the world, says the Lord. Those who follow me will not walk in darkness, but will have the light of life. John 8.12

About this Service: In Isaiah it is the one God who sits above the earth and numbers the stars – it is that God who strengthens the powerless. So, in Jesus' healing work we see the hand of the creator God, lifting up the sick woman to health and service (diakonia). Like Simon's mother-in-law, we are lifted up to health and diakonia. Following Jesus, we strengthen the powerless; like Jesus, we seek to renew our own strength in quiet times of prayer.

Isaiah 40: 21-31 The Judeans in exile have a good reason to be hopeful: the one who will bring them to freedom is the God who created the world, the God who subdues the rulers of the earth and gives strength to those who are weary.

Mark 1:29-39 Everywhere Jesus goes, many people expect him to set them free from oppression. Everywhere he goes, he heals them and sets them free. Disease, devils and death are running for their lives. The forces that diminish human life are rendered powerless by Jesus.
