Each communion should be, as it were, adding some fresh point to the image of Christ within our souls. As each touch of the artist adds some fresh feature to the painting, so each communion is a touch of Christ, which should develop some fresh feature of His own perfect likeness within us.

WELCOME TO THE CHURCH OF RESURRECTION

Thanksgiving Sunday

Eighteenth Sunday after Pentecost

8 October 2017

8:00 a.m. (said) Eucharist

9:15 a.m. Holy Eucharist (sung)

Look down from heaven, O God; behold and tend this vine.

About this Service:

At harvest time we join the psalmist in offering thanksgiving to God: "You crown the year with your goodness and your paths overflow with plenty." We are grateful for the abundance of the good things of God's creation. Paul reminds us that our thanksgiving overflows into generosity. As the body of Christ in the world, we give ourselves away as bread for the hungry.

Deuteronomy 8:7-18

Times of abundance tempt us to forget the Lord and rely on our own power and resources. But the Lord is the one who took Israel out of Egypt, led and fed them in the wilderness, brought them into the land and gave them power to be productive. To thank God is to remember and proclaim God's deeds.

Luke 17:11-19

A Samaritan leper becomes a model for thanksgiving. He does not take for granted the kindness shown to him, but takes time to thank Jesus and glorify God.
