WELCOME TO
THE CHURCH OF THE RESURRECTION
Thanksgiving Sunday
Twentieth Sunday after Pentecost
October 7th, 2018
8:00 a.m. HOLY EUCHARIST (said)
9:15 a.m. HOLY EUCHARIST (sung)

Those who sowed with tears, will reap with songs of joy.
Psalm 126.6

About this Service:

Today's readings reflect two of the strains that go into the celebration of a national day of thanksgiving: gratitude for abundant harvest (Joel) and civic prayer for a peaceable common life (1 Timothy). The core meaning of Thanksgiving for many of us—a home feast for extended family and friends—is not reflected in the readings; but it is reflected weekly in the church's meal of thanksgiving (eucharist). What we wish for both these thanksgiving meals is that they will go deeper than celebration of one another and our own blessings, to recognize in our true Host one who wants everyone brought to the table.

Joel 2:21-27

The prophet Joel understood that a locust plague that ravaged the land of Judah was God's judgment on the people, whom he then called to repentance. Today's reading points beyond the judgment to a time when the Lord will bless the land and cause it to produce food in abundance.

Matthew 6:25-33

In the Sermon on the Mount, Jesus taught his disciples about the providence of God so that they would regard life with thanksgiving and trust rather than anxiety.

GIFT Donation to Cornerstone Housing for Women

As you are aware we participated in the Diocesan GIFT program for 5 years which ended in December of 2017. We raised money from your generous donations to the program to fund Children's Ministry, the 50th Anniversary event, Welcoming New Comers and Outreach. We are now completing the program by fulfilling our Outreach goal. Parish Council voted to donate $6500 to the Cornerstone Housing for Women project at 373 Princeton Ave. The money is needed to furnish the common areas of the home to make it less institutional and more "homelike." As the population of the home is expected to be about 10% Indigenous they are commissioning an Indigenous-themed stained-glass window for the lobby. Our donation will be going toward the cost of this creation. More news on this as we go along.
