This child of yours,
this miracle reborn of water and the word;
the book of life records her name;
you smile and angels celebrate;
this child of yours, this child of ours. (Jaroslav J. Vajda (Hymn 38, Verse 2)

WELCOME TO
THE CHURCH OF THE RESURRECTION
Twenty-third Sunday after Pentecost
HOLY BAPTISM AND EUCHARIST
October 28th, 2018
9:15 a.m. HOLY EUCHARIST (sung)

Our Saviour Jesus Christ has abolished death and brought life and immortality to light
through the gospel.
2 Timothy 1.10

About this Service:

Can we pray the way Bartimaeus prays? People try to hush him up because by addressing Jesus as "Son of David" he is making a politically dangerous claim that Jesus is the rightful king. Could our prayers ever be heard as a threat to unjust powers-that-be? Bartimaeus won't give up or go away quietly but repeats his call for help more loudly. Do we ask so boldly? And are our prayers an honest answer to Jesus' question, "What do you want me to do for you?"

Job 42:1-6, 10-17

After the glorious vision of creation contained in God's speeches at the end of Job, the righteous sufferer proclaims that he has seen God and is humbled. The Lord restores Job's fortunes, and Job dares to live again, fathering more children and giving his daughters an inheritance along with their brothers.

Mark 10: 46-52

Bartimaeus comes to Jesus with faith, asking that he might see again. Recognizing Jesus' identity, Bartimaeus is the first person to call him "Son of David" in the Gospel of Mark.
